

2008 “Arts Are Core!” Summer Workshop

August 4-6 , 2008 -- 8:30 am to 4:00 pm

Edith Bowen Laboratory School on the USU Campus

A Scholarship Opportunity for Utah’s K-6 Elementary Teachers sponsored by Utah State University with generous support from the Sorenson Family, and art works for kids!

100 elementary teachers will receive scholarships for 1 or 2 graduate credits at the “Arts Are Core!” Summer Workshop on the USU campus in Logan. Scholarship recipients are responsible for travel, lodging, and other expenses. Participation is limited to teachers who apply for the Workshop Lottery and are selected. See reverse side for details.

The arts are at the very core of our shared experience as human beings. Through the arts we express the meaning of that experience to us individually and as a society.

The Utah State Board of Education has designated music, theater, dance, and visual art as core curriculum content. Yet the curriculum of the classroom continues to narrow.

Musées Royaux des Beaux-Arts, Brussels

The “Arts Are Core!” Workshop will help you integrate the arts into your curriculum. With the 1-credit option, you’ll learn about using content areas to support the arts, as well as using the arts to support content aims. With the 2-credit option, you’ll ALSO have personal opportunities to build skill and confidence in selected art mediums. See reverse side for details.
